2. No member of a Commandery, whether present when the ballot was taken or not, shall prevent or delay the conferring of the Order of the Temple, upon any Companion of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross by a mere objection; but every candidate once elected to receive the Orders in any Commandery, and who shall have been duly constituted a Companion of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross, shall be entitled to the Order of the Temple, unless found unworthy after trial on charges duly presented. ^{See 1902/21} This section, however, shall not apply unless a notice of the Conclave at which the candidate was elected to receive the Orders, shall have been sent to the objector, containing the information that the candidate's name would, at that time, be presented for ballot. (15)

3. No person shall receive the Orders of Knighthood in this Commandery for a less sum than dollars, of which shall be paid on admission, and the further sum of dollars before he can receive the Order of Knight Templar; and none shall be admitted as affiliated members for a less sum than dollars; the affiliation fee, in all cases, to be paid before the reception of the candidate. EDICTS OF THE GRAND COMMANDERY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN.

1. That the granting of a charter by the Grand Commandery is legal notice to all subordinate Commanderies within this grand jurisdiction, and each subordinate Commandery is presumed to know and is bound to take notice of the proceedings of the Grand Commandery, whether they have received the printed proceedings or not. (Proceedings 1868, page 8.)

2. Resolved, That no subordinate Commandery within the jurisdiction of this Grand Commandery shall confer the Order of the Temple upon any candidate until such candidate shall procure or deposit with the Recorder the means to procure the proper uniform of the Order, the amount of such deposit to be regulated by the order of the several subordinate Commanderies. (Proceedings 1870, pages 12 and 21.)

3. Resolved, That no Sir Knight within the jurisdiction of this Grand Commandery shall sell, loan, give, or hire the use of the uniform of any of the Orders of Masonic Knighthood, or any portion of such uniform, to any person whomsoever, except it be a Sir Knight in good standing and membership; and then only to be used in a lawful conclave or assemblage of Sir Knights of the Order. (Proceedings 1872, page 98.)

4. Resolved, That it is advisable, and for the best interests of Templar Masonry, that hereafter no dispensation be issued or granted to create or form a new Commandery within the distance of twenty-five miles of any Commandery now in existence, except in cities having a population of not less than twenty thousand inhabitants. (Proceedings 1870, page 14; also proceedings 1871, page 17.)

5. Resolved, That it is advisable, and for the best interests of Templar Masonry, that no dispensation be granted to form a second Commandery in any city containing a population of less than fifty thousand inhabitants. (Proceedings 1870, page 18.)

HONORARY MEMBERS.

7. Resolved unanimously, That, in consideration of the long and eminently valuable services rendered to this Grand Commandery, Sir Knight OLIVER BOURKE, our past Grand Recorder, and Sir Knight WILLIAM BARCLAY, our past Grand Treasurer, to whom is largely due the present prosperous condition of this Grand Body, in marked contrast with the empty state of its exchequer when they were elected; therefore, to mark the appreciation of this Grand Body,

Resolved, That Sir Knights OLIVER BOURKE and WILLIAM BARCLAY, be and are hereby elected honorary life members of the Grand Commandery of the State of Michigan. (Proceedings 1871, page 24.)

8. Resolved, That the Orders of Masonic Knighthood shall not be conferred by any Commandery upon any candidate after the lapse of six months from the date of the election of the candidate; Provided, that, for good reason appearing, the Commandery within which such election was held may extend the time not more than one year from the date of such election by resolution adopted previous to the expiration of the said term of six months. (Proceedings 1872, page 98.)

9. Resolved, That a petition presented to a Commandery for the Orders of Knighthood shall not be withdrawn after having been received and referred to a committee. (Proceedings 1872, page 100.)

10. Resolved, That, in future, all subordinate Commanderies be required to include in their annual returns the names of all members restored from suspension on account non-payment of dues, and in all such cases such subordinate Commandery shall, at the same time, account for and pay over to the Grand Commandery the proper Grand (Commandery) dues to the date of such last return. (Proceedings 1876, page 119.)

11. Resolved, That all subordinate Commanderies within the jurisdiction be required to conform to the edicts of the General Grand Encampment, and hold but one regular session in each month. (Proceedings 1877, page 185.)

12. Ordered, That the use of intoxicating liquors at, or about, or in any way in connection with any banquet given by any Commandery or parts thereof in its Asylum or Temple, is prohibited. (Proceedings 1877, page 193.)

13. An unaffiliated Knight Templar is not entitled, as a matter of right, to the honors of Knightly burial; still the Commandery within whose jurisdiction an unaffiliated Sir Knight dies may, upon a proper request, render the last earthly honors to a deceased Knight; or a Commandery in such a case, may, upon request of the Lodge, act as escort to a Lodge, when about to bury a deceased brother. (Proceedings 1878, page 17.)

14. No subordinate Commandery within this jurisdiction can act upon the petition of a Companion for the Orders of Knighthood, who is a resident of another grand jurisdiction, without the consent of the Grand Commander and subordinate Commandery within whose jurisdiction the petitioner resides; nor can a subordinate Commandery of this jurisdiction waive the jurisdiction of its material in favor of a subordinate Commandery of a sister jurisdiction, without the consent of the Grand Commander. (Proceedings 1878, page 17.)

15. A Sir Knight is entitled, as a matter of right, to a dimit from his Commandery; Provided, he is clear of the books, and not under charges; his dimit makes him an unaffiliated Knight Templar only, as he still remains bound by the obligations which he has assumed and taken, and subject to Knightly discipline by the Commandery in whose jurisdiction he may reside. (Proceedings 1878, page 18.)

16. All voluntary unaffiliated Knights Templar, residing within this grand jurisdiction for twelve months, are hereby excluded from the asylums and all processions and gatherings of the Order. (Proceedings 1878, page 18.)

17. Subordinate Commanderies cannot become incorporated under the laws of this State. If such action was sanctioned the subordinates would have a legal existence independent of this Grand Body, which cannot be permitted. (Proceedings 1878, page 18.)

18. Resolved, That the Tactics submitted by the Committee (Sirs L. D. HARRIS, JAMES FINDLATER and SEYMOUR HOWELL) be adopted as the Tactics of this Grand Jurisdiction. (Adopted May 22d, 1895. Proceedings 1895, page 69.)

19. Ordered, That the Grand Recorder compile from the returns the names of all Sir Knights who have died in this jurisdiction within the year, and print the same in the Grand Commandery proceedings, in a suitable memorial page or pages. (Proceedings 1878, page 21.)

20. The failure of a Commandery to meet at its regular conclave, would not govern the report of the committee on trials, unless by some special action of the Commandery in reference to it. The committee, after its appointment, proceeds to investigate the charges, and when the investigation is completed, can report the result to the Commandery when in regular session. (Proceedings 1881, page 18.)

21. A Commandery cannot turn out to bury a deceased Sir Knight who died while under suspension from his Lodge for non-payment of dues. (Proceedings 1882, page 14.)

22. A Companion of the Red Cross should not be required to make a new application to receive the Order of the Temple, where more than one year has elapsed since the Order of the Red Cross was conferred upon him, unless objection to his advancement had been made to the Commandery. (Proceedings 1882, page 14.)

23. A Sir Knight can dimit from his Commandery and affiliate with another without change of residence. (Proceedings 1883, page 18.) also Decided 1902/21.

24. A Royal Arch Mason who has removed from one jurisdiction to another, but before gaining residence in the territory of the new Commandery, he sends his petition to the Commandery where he formerly resided. Under such circumstances the Commandery receiving the petition cannot act upon the same without the consent of the Commandery into whose jurisdiction he has removed. (Proceedings 1887, page 20.)

25. A Commandery having adopted a by-law fixing the regular preceding Good Friday as the time for electing officers, cannot hold their election on Good Friday. (Proceedings 1887, page 20.)

26. If a candidate objects to participating in the usual manner, substitute pure water, and may God bless and keep him steadfast in the faithful performance of his resolution, and forbid that we should insist on his conforming to any rite or ceremony that would cause him to become a victim to the greatest curse that afflicts mankind. (Proceedings 1889, page 10.)

27. It would not be proper to confer the Orders of Knighthood on Sunday. (Proceedings 1890, page 15.)

28. An agreement entered into between applicants for a recommendation to form a new Commandery, of the one part, and a chartered Commandery to whom they might apply, of the other part, would not be binding as to territorial partition between them, the assigning of territory being the sovereign prerogative of the Grand Commandery, and that, in the absence of its special enactment, territorial sovereignty between two subordinate Commanderies must extend for each half the distance between them, except in cities having two or more Commanderies, in which case the jurisdiction shall be concurrent. (Proceedings 1891, pages 14, 39.)

29. That this Grand Commandery constitute it a Knightly offense for a Sir Knight of this Grand Jurisdiction to dispose of his uniform, unless the same be replaced within ninety days; and if not so replaced he shall be amenable to Knightly discipline. (Proceedings 1891, page 39.)

30. Resolved, That the resolution adopted by this Grand Commandery at its session in 1885, in which the "short ceremonial" for the Order of Malta was adopted for use in this Grand Jurisdiction, shall not be construed as prohibiting such Commanderies as may desire to do so, from conferring that Order according to the full ceremonial as prescribed by the Grand Encampment. (Proceedings 1891, page 40.)

31. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Grand Commandery that the Lenten season be and is considered inappropriate for such social entertainments and diversions on the part of Commanderies as the church and good society interdict.

32. Resolved, That due religious observance by the subordinate Commanderies of Christmas Day, Good Friday and Easter, be and the same is hereby recommended by this Grand Commandery. (Proceedings 1891, page 43.)

33. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Grand Commandery that the Order of Malta should be conferred at the same conclave with the Order of the Temple, unless it is inconvenient for the Commandery to do so, but that it be obligatory upon the Commanderies to confer the same within sixty days after conferring the Order of the Temple. (Proceedings 1895, page 70.)

34. Should a Knight Templar neglect or refuse to appear and take the Order of Malta for a period of six months he shall be excluded from all conclaves of the Commandery, except for good and sufficient reasons appearing.

35. A member of a Commandery can object to and prevent a Knight Templar from visiting and sitting in a Commandery to which he belongs as an honorary member. (Proceedings 1892, page 23.)

36. A Commandery under the jurisdiction of the Grand Encampment wishing a Michigan Commandery to confer the Order of Malta upon one of its members, the request must come through the Grand Master of the Grand Encampment and the Grand Commander of Michigan. (Proceedings 1892, page 24.)

37. Resolved, That no subordinate Commandery be permitted to hold the petition of an applicant for the Orders for a longer period than three months, but that on or before that time the same be finally disposed of by ballot. (Proceedings 1897, page 86.)

FORMS

TRIALS OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Forms of Complaint and Appeal, etc.

The first step to be taken toward a trial of a Knight Templar is to prefer charges or make a complaint. The important requisites of a complaint are that it should be brief, and yet comprehensive, clearly defining the nature of the offense charged, and, as accurately as possible, specifying the time, place and circumstances of its commission. It may be in this form:

COMPLAINT.

*To the Commander and Sir Knights of ———— Commandery
No. —:*

Sir Knight A. B. is hereby charged with immoral and un-knightly conduct:

FIRST SPECIFICATION—That the said A. B., on the — day of —, 19—, in the public street, at ———, in the county of ———, was in a state of intoxication, from the use of strong and spirituous liquors, in violation of his duty as a Knight Templar, and to the scandal and disgrace of the Order of Knighthood.

SECOND SPECIFICATION—That the said A. B., on the — day of —, 19—, at ——— aforesaid, and at various other times and places, in the year 19—, was intoxicated with strong and spirituous liquors, although admonished therefor by the Commander and Sir Knights of this Commandery, in violation of his duty as a Knight Templar, to the great scandal and disgrace of the Order; that it is therefore hereby demanded that the said A. B. be dealt with therefor according to the law and usage of Masonic Knighthood.

COMPLAINT IN ANOTHER FORM.

*To the Commander and Sir Knights of ——— Commandery
No. —:*

Sir Knight C. D. is hereby charged with immoral and un-knightly conduct:

FIRST SPECIFICATION—That the said C. D., on the — day of —, 19—, at ———, in the county of ———, in the presence and hearing of Brother or Sir Knight E. F., and others, spoke and declared of Sir Knight G. H. these words in substance: that the said G. H. was a dishonest man; that he was a knave and a cheat, and that he was a liar; to the great injury of the said G. H., and to the common scandal and disgrace of our Knightly Order.

SECOND SPECIFICATION—That the said C. D., on the — day of —, at ———, aforesaid, in the presence and hearing of Mr. Y. Z., and others, publicly spoke and declared of the said G. H., who was not present, that he, the said G. H., was a dishonest man, a knave, a cheat and a liar, in violation of the duties of the said C. D. as a Knight Templar, to the great injury of the said G. H., and to the common scandal and disgrace of our Knightly Order; and it is therefore hereby demanded that the said C. D. be dealt with therefor according to the law and usage of Masonic Knighthood.

L———— S————.

Dated ———, 19—.

These forms might be indefinitely multiplied; but they will be sufficient to show the manner and importance of specifying time, place and circumstances constituting the offense.

This charge (that contained in the first form will hereafter be followed), having been presented in open Commandery, and received, the Commander thereupon directs the Recorder to serve notice upon the accused that he is required to file a plea or answer within ten days, and the Recorder shall accompany said notice with a copy of the charges. The charges need not be entered on the minutes, but the nature of them should be, and also the fact that notice of said charges and a copy thereof were directed to be served on the accused. It is the duty of the Recorder immediately to serve on the accused a copy of the charges, with the following notice annexed:

NOTICE OF CHARGES.

Sir Knight A. B.: Take notice that the within (or foregoing) is a copy of the charge and specifications preferred against you at a stated Conclave of ——— Commandery, held on the — day of —, A. D. 19—.

You are required to file with me your plea or answer to said charge and specifications within ten days from the date hereof.

(Seal.)

P———— Q————,
Recorder.

Dated ———, 19—.

At the next stated Conclave of the Commandery the Recorder shall make report of his action.

If the accused shall have filed a plea or answer, the fact and the nature of such plea or answer shall be entered on the minutes.

If the plea or answer shall admit the truth of the charge and specifications, the Commandery shall at once determine what punishment shall be inflicted, and a record thereof shall be made in the minutes.

If the accused shall deny the truth of the charge and specifications, or shall set forth any matter in justification or mitigation of the offense, or if he shall fail to file a plea or answer, the Commandery shall proceed to try the accused in open Commandery; or a committee of three may be appointed to take testimony and report the same to the Commandery. When such testimony shall have been reported, the Commandery shall, in like manner, proceed to try and adjudge the case. The decision or verdict shall be entered on the minutes.

In case the accused absent himself, so that a copy of the charge and specifications cannot be personally served, the said copy may be transmitted to him by mail, if his residence be known; if not, after a reasonable time, and after diligent inquiry, the Recorder should report the fact to the Commandery for its further action. In all cases the prosecutor or Recorder should take care that the accused be served with notice five days beforehand of the time and place of meeting of the committee for taking testimony, and of the time and place of the trial.

The accused may be aided or represented by counsel in the preparation of his plea or answer, and in the taking of testimony, and all the proceedings of the trial: Provided, however, That such counsel shall be a Knight Templar in good standing.

ANSWER.

The following is suggested as a form for the plea or answer:

C. D., in person, denies the charge made against him, and every matter and thing contained in the several specifications of the same, and demands trial thereon.

This answer will vary according to the facts of each case. One specification may be admitted and another denied. The charge and specifications may be admitted, and matters set up in extenuation or excuse. To procure the attendance of witnesses on either side, some process may be necessary. If the witness be not a Knight Templar his attendance must, of course, be voluntary; but a Knight Templar is bound to obey a summons. This shall be issued by the Commander of the Commandery, and in the following form:

SUMMONS FOR WITNESS.

To Sir Knight I. J.:

You are hereby summoned and required to attend as a witness before the Commandery (or before the committee appointed) in the matter of a certain charge and specifications preferred against A. B., on the — day of — inst., at — o'clock p. m., at the Asylum of — Commandery No. —, and there to testify to the truth, according to your knowledge.

(Attest): K—— L——,
P—— Q——, Commander.

(Seal.) Recorder.

Dated ———, 19—.

This may be made to answer for several witnesses, by inserting their names and adding the words, "and each of you," after the word "you." The knight Templar disobeying such a Summons may be proceeded against as in case of disobedience to any other Summons. For this purpose, the person serving it should note upon it when and how it is served.

The committee, having met for taking testimony, should organize; that is to say, one of their number (and usually the first named) should preside, though they may choose another for that purpose, and another of them should be chosen to act as clerk, and keep the minutes of their proceedings. A copy of the minutes of their appointment should be furnished them by the Recorder. They should keep minutes of their proceedings, which may be in this form:

MINUTES OF COMMITTEE.

The committee appointed to take testimony in the matter of the charge and specifications against A. B., a copy of which is hereto annexed (marked A), assembled at the Asylum of — Commandery No. —, on — day evening, the — day of —, 19—, pursuant to the following resolution (copy resolution).

Present: R. S., T. U., and V. W., committee. R. S. officiated as chairman, and V. W. was chosen clerk; also C. D., who preferred said charge and specifications, and his counsel, A. B., and —.

The charge and specifications were then read by Sir Knight V. W., Clerk, together with the answer of Sir Knight A. B.

Sir Knight B. requested that Sir Knight N. O. assist him as counsel. Sir Knight O. objected to the form of the charge and specifications as being vague and uncertain, but the committee declined to consider the objection, to which Sir Knight O. took an exception.

Sir Knight E. F. was then introduced as a witness, and testified as a Knight Templar as follows: I am acquainted with Sir Knight A. B.; I saw him on — street, in —, on the — day of — last; I was on the opposite side of the street; he appeared to be much intoxicated [objection was made to the appearance of accused, but it was overruled, and an exception taken]; he was there for about half an hour; he reeled as he walked, etc.

On cross-examination Sir Knight E. F. further testified: I know that Sir Knight B. had been sick, etc.

The Committee then adjourned to meet at the same place on — day evening, the — of —, 19—, at 7 o'clock.

—DAY EVENING, —, 19—.

The committee met pursuant to adjournment. Present: All the committee, and Sir Knight A. B., and his counsel, Sir Knight O.

Sir Knight R. S. officiated as chairman.

Mr. H. C. was then introduced as a witness by —, and stated as follows:

I was in — on the — day of — inst., etc.

The proof on the part of the complainant here rested.

Sir Knight O., on behalf of Sir Knight A. B., then produced the affidavit of Mr. J. B., sworn before — —, to which — — objected, on the ground that Mr. B. should be produced for cross-examination.

Mr. B. was then produced, and — — then consented that his affidavit might be read, which was read accordingly, and is hereto annexed (marked B).

— — then cross-examined Mr. B., who stated as follows, etc.:

The testimony being closed (when taken by a committee), the committee certified to the correctness of the record, as follows:

We hereby certify that the foregoing are correct minutes of the proceedings of this committee, and that the report of the testimony taken before us, and hereto attached, is full and correct.

These minutes have been given in this extended form, as presenting a convenient way of stating certain facts and proceedings on trial. Thus the statement of formal objections, and the grounds of them; that the accused was permitted to have counsel; that the first witness testified in his character as a Knight Templar, and that the second witness, not being a Knight Templar, made his statement merely, no oath being administered to either; that the testimony is taken down in the words of the witness, and, of course, in the first person as he spoke; that the precise point objected to is stated; that the time and place of each adjournment are noted; that a sworn affidavit was not admitted, because no opportunity was given for cross-examination, and, finally, that the committee certified to the correctness of the minutes and testimony; all of which may furnish useful hints to those engaged in such trials, it being presumed that the usual forms of such proceedings, and the ordinary rules of evidence, are understood and will be observed. It is at the option of the committee whether they will admit anyone to be present but the parties and the witnesses testifying; but on all such occasions none but Knights Templar should be admitted, except the witness not a Knight Templar, and he only while testifying.

After the testimony shall have been read, and arguments made by counsel, by the accused, and by members of the Commandery who may desire to speak, a vote shall be taken. The question shall be submitted to the Commandery in the following form:

"Is the accused guilty under the first specification of the (first) charge against him?"

The question shall be submitted in like manner upon each specification, and then upon each general charge. If there shall be more than one charge, a separate vote will be taken upon each charge.

If the Commandery shall vote that the accused is not guilty upon any of the specifications or charges, or that the same have not been proven, he shall stand acquitted. If he be found guilty on any of the specifications or charges, a resolution shall be offered, fixing the punishment, which resolution may be amended to inflict a greater or less penalty than that specified in the resolution; which resolution or amendment, when adopted, shall take effect immediately.

The Commandery may also decide that the charges and expenses of the trial amount to the sum of — dollars, which it adjudges that Sir Knight A. B. shall pay.

The Recorder of the Commandery should enter on his minutes the action of the Commandery upon each question submitted, with the adjudication as to charges and expenses. Should the resolutions be adopted (and for this purpose a majority vote is sufficient, unless the statute provide differently), and the accused be absent from the Commandery, it is the duty of the Recorder to furnish him immediately with a copy of the action of the Commandery, with a notice, which may be in this form:

NOTICE OF JUDGMENT.

To Sir Knight A. B.:

Take notice that the foregoing is a copy of the action adopted by ——— Commandery, No. —, at their Conclave held at their Asylum, on the — day of ——— inst.

(Seal.)

P—— Q——,
Recorder.

Dated ———, 19—.

These forms will answer for all the ordinary proceedings, from complaint to judgment, on a Knightly trial, on charges preferred in a Commandery. Some of them may be found practically unnecessary; but the complaint, minutes, and report are deemed important, and should be substantially followed in every case. In all cases, the decision of the Commandery is final, unless an appeal be taken from it to the Grand Commandery or Grand Encampment, where it has jurisdiction, within sixty days after judgment or verdict. In such cases, a full report will be made to the Grand Commandery or Grand Encampment of the minutes, etc., which shall be filed in the office of the Grand Recorder and notice given to the parties by the Recorder.

APPEALS.

Where a party intends to appeal, he shall give notice of it immediately, which may be in the following form:

NOTICE OF APPEAL.

To P. Q., Recorder of ——— Commandery, No. —:

Take notice that I appeal from the action of said Commandery on the — day of —, 19—, in passing sentence of suspension on me for three months (or other punishment), to the Grand Commandery of the State of —, on the grounds to be stated in my appeal.

A—— B——.

Dated —, 19—.

On receiving this notice, the Recorder of the Commandery will transmit to the Grand Encampment or Grand Commandery a copy of the minutes of proceedings, embracing the evidence, etc. The applicant should next prepare his appeal, which may appear in this form:

APPEAL.

To the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State, of —.

The undersigned hereby appeals to you from the decision of ——— Commandery, No. —, made —, 19—, in adjudging him guilty of, etc. (stating the offense, as in the decisions of the Commandery), and in passing sentence of suspension on him for three months (or other punishment), and he specifies the following as the ground of his appeal:

1. That the second specification of the charges is vague and uncertain.
2. That testimony as to appearances of intoxication was improperly received.
3. That they erred in rejecting the sworn affidavit of J. B.
4. That the proofs in the case were not sufficient to warrant the finding of the Commandery.

5. That the Commandery erred in passing the resolution of suspension (or other penalty) by a majority vote.

All of which appears by the papers, proceedings, law, and evidence in the case, to which reference is hereby made.

A—— B——.

Dated ——, 19—.

A copy of this appeal should be served on the Recorder of the Commandery, and also a copy on the Grand Recorder. Within ten days an answer should be made to the appeal by the Commandery. As, in most cases, this is merely taking issue, the form of an answer on appeal may be unnecessary, yet one is subjoined as follows:

ANSWER TO APPEAL.

——— Commandery, No. —, answers the appeal of A. B., and says:

That the said Commandery denies that there is any error in the proceedings of said Commandery in the trial of the said A. B.; and furthermore says that the decision of said Commandery in said case is sustained both by the law and evidence therein applicable thereto.

(Seal.)

Dated ——, 19—.

P—— Q——,

Recorder.

This is very general; and if a specific denial is deemed necessary—taking issue upon each of the grounds of appeal, and assigning reasons therefor—it may be made after the foregoing form in commencement, and adding thereto as follows:

Because the said Commandery says, as to the first ground of appeal, etc..

And because the said Commandery says, as to the second ground of appeal, etc.

The case being thus fairly brought up on appeal, the Grand Commander may hear the same, either by oral argument or the appeal and answer thereto may be made sufficiently full to call attention to all the points in the case, and the reasons therefor. If the Recorder of the Commandery shall have omitted a transcript of the proceedings of the Commandery, and the same be required to make the case perfectly understood, the Grand Commander may make an order in this form:

ORDER ON APPEAL.

OFFICE OF GRAND COMMANDER OF KNIGHTS

TEMPLAR OF THE STATE OF _____,

*To the Commander and Sir Knights of _____ Commandery,
No. —:*

Sir Knight A. B., having duly appealed from the decision of your Commandery, made on the _____, 19—, suspending him for three months, you are hereby required to transmit to the Grand Recorder by the hand of your Recorder, under seal of your Commandery, a transcript of all the proceedings of your Commandery in the case of the said A. B., from the time of the presentation of the charges against him until and including the final action of your Commandery thereon, with the several dates thereof, together with all papers and documents relating thereto, not heretofore returned, within — days from the receipt of this order by you.

Given under my hand and private seal, on the day and year first above written.

Grand Commander.

From the foregoing general forms and directions, sufficient may be gathered to apply to every case of knightly discipline and trial between any parties, and whatever may be the decision. It should be remarked that when the charge or specifications are based on a section of the Statutes and Regulations, or of the Commandery By-Laws, it should be plainly and distinctly referred to.

Should the accused admit the charge or specifications when served upon him, proof of such admission or confession will be all that the Commandery is required to have made, and it will make up its minutes accordingly, adopting the foregoing forms.

If the accused fails to appear, or answer the charge and specifications, after personal service, the Commandery may proceed, after taking proof of such service, to take proof of the charge and specifications; and in such case the Commander should appoint some Knight Templar to appear for him. The minutes and report in such case should be full, and the forms can readily be modified to suit such a state of facts.

APPEAL TO THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

In case of appeal to the Grand Encampment, the following form may be substantially adopted:

To the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America:

The undersigned, your petitioner, respectfully represents that on or about the — day of —, 19—, charges of immoral and unknighly conduct (stating the general nature of the charges) were preferred against him by Sir Knight S. L., in — Commandery, No. —, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of —, and such proceedings were thereupon had in the said — Commandery; that your petitioner was adjudged by the same Commandery guilty of the offense so charged against him, and was thereupon adjudged to (state the penalty imposed); that from such determination and sentence or judgment, your petitioner appealed to the said Grand Commandery, and thereupon such proceedings were had in and by said Grand Commandery; that afterward, and on or about the — day of —, 19—, the said determination and sentence, or judgment, were in all things affirmed (state the decision in fact given on the appeal by the said Grand Commandery; and now your petitioner, feeling himself aggrieved by the action and determination of the said Grand Commandery in the premises, and being advised that the same is erroneous, appeals therefrom to the Grand Encampment of the United States, and specifies, among other grounds of error therein, the following:

First. That, etc. (stating the several errors in, and objections to, the proceedings and determination of the Grand Commandery relied upon separately, and numbering them distinctly). (It must appear in this appeal that accused claims that, in the proceedings against him, the Constitution, some of the Statutes, or usages of Knight Templarism were violated; otherwise the Grand Encampment will not take jurisdiction.)

Your petitioner, therefore, prays that the said Grand Commandery may be required to answer this petition; and that the testimony, proceedings, determination, and judgment, aforesaid, as well of the said — Commandery as of said Grand Commandery, may, upon this appeal, be reviewed, and that such sentence and determination or judgment may be reversed, modified or amended, as may be agreeable to knightly usage, justice, or equity.

A—— B——.

Dated —, 19—.

This petition of appeal should be delivered to the Grand Recorder of the Grand Commandery, and a duplicate thereof delivered to the Grand Recorder of the Grand Encampment, which, when done, perfects the appeal. As soon thereafter as practicable, and before the next session of the Grand Encampment, the Grand Recorder of the Grand Commandery should transmit to the Grand Recorder of the Grand Encampment, a transcript of all the testimony, papers and proceedings in the case which were before the Grand Commandery, together with its action and final determination therein, all duly authenticated under the seal of the Grand Commandery.

CONSTITUTING NEW COMMANDERIES.

The Sir Knights about to be constituted will assemble in their Asylum and form in two divisions, open order, inward faced, with swords at a carry.

The Triangle should be placed near the center of the hall, the tapers not lighted. The Bible and relics on the Triangle should be covered.

The Grand Commander, or constituting officers of the same, having met and made due preparatory arrangements in an adjoining room, will march to the Commandery hall, where they should be received with the proper salute, and assume their stations.

The Grand Commander, or officer in charge, will then cause the service to commence, by the rendering of an appropriate hymn or chant. Then may follow the reading of a Scripture lesson by the Grand Prelate. (Micah vii., 8-12, is suggested for such a lesson.) Prayer shall then be offered by the Grand Prelate, all kneeling and uncovering.

PRAYER.

Almighty and ever-blessed God our Father, with whom is our life, and from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, unto Thee we bow our hearts in reverence and in trust, gratefully acknowledging all Thy mercies and the manifold manifestations of Thy providence and Thy truth. And now, as we engage in the solemn services of this occasion, we beseech Thy blessed help and direction, that all things may be done to Thy glory and to the advancement of the interests we have in charge. Let Thy grace be poured upon these, Thy servants, about to be constituted into an organization founded upon the Christian religion and the practice of the Christian virtues. Give unto them a large appreciation of the mission to which they are called, and an earnest purpose to perform the duties which will henceforth devolve upon them in connection with this new organization. Enlighten their minds, purify their hearts, and help them to attain such true consecration of soul that they may indeed bear much fruit to the honor and glory of Thy holy Name. May they be true to the pledges they have taken as members of this Institution, true to the example and teachings of the Great Captain of their salvation, that so they may be met at the last with the welcome, "Well done, good and faithful servants, enter ye into the joy of your Lord." All this we ask, most merciful Father, through Him who is the Resurrection and the Life, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

All rise and resume chapeaux, after which the "Gloria Patri" may be rendered.

The Deputy Grand Commander, at the base of the Triangle, will then address the Grand Commander as follows:

Right Eminent Grand Commander, a constitutional number of Knights of the Valiant and Magnanimous Order of the Temple, duly instructed in the sublime mysteries of our Order, having received from the proper authority a Charter authorizing them to hold a regular Commandery of Knights Templar, are now assembled for the purpose of being legally constituted, and having their officers installed in due form.

Grand Commander—Let the Charter be read.

The Grand Recorder reads the Charter.

The Sir Knights will stand at "present arms" whilst the Grand Commander makes the following

DECLARATION OF CONSTITUTION.

By virtue of the high power and authority in me vested, I do now form you, Sir Knights, into a just and regular Commandery of Knights Templar, by the distinctive title of ————— Commandery; and you are henceforth authorized and empowered to form and open a Council of Knights of the Red Cross, a Commandery of Knights Templar, and a Priory of Knights of Malta, and to perform all such things as may appertain to the same; conforming in all your doings to the Statutes and Regulations of the Grand Commandery under whose authority you act, and to the Constitution, Statutes and Edicts of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America. And may the God of our fathers be with you, guide and direct you in all your undertakings.

The Grand Wardens will now uncover the jewels on the Triangle, whilst the choir shall chant the Fifteenth Psalm, or some other appropriate selection. The Grand Commander will then cause the Sir Knights to be assembled about the Triangle, and the Grand Prelate may then read the Apostles' Creed, as follows:

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell, The third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Holy Catholic Church, The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

Grand Commander—Eminent Grand Prelate, you will now pronounce the words of consecration:

Grand Prelate—To our Most Eminent and Worthy Patron, St. John, the Almoner, I do now solemnly dedicate this Commandery, by the name and title of _____ Commandery; and may the God of all grace abundantly bless it and all its members in their laudable undertaking; and may each one of its members so redeem his time that he may receive the joyful invitation, "Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, and good will toward men.

Response by all the Sir Knights :

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Then may follow the "Gloria in Excelsis," or "Te Deum Laudamus," by the choir, after which, by order of the Grand Commander, the Grand Marshal makes the following proclamation :

GRAND MARSHAL'S PROCLAMATION.

Hear ye! hear ye! hear ye! Valiant Knights of the Temple!

I am ordered to proclaim that this new Commandery of Knights Templar, by the name of _____ Commandery, has been legally constituted according to the forms and ceremonies of the Order of Knights Templar; and that it is now authorized to meet and work as a regular Commandery under the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery of _____.

This proclamation is from the East, once (a blast on trumpet), twice (trumpet), thrice (trumpet). All interested will take due notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

The new Commandery will now be opened in due form, and proceed to the election of its officers, the instituting officer presiding.

If the Grand Commandery has assembled for consecration services only, the Sir Knights will be formed in two divisions, inward faced; the Grand Officers then retire, passing under an arch of steel, escorted by Commander, Generalissimo and Captain General, preceded by Warder, to entrance of guard Room.

The Commandery having been duly constituted, the officers are to be installed with the following ceremony:

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS OF A COMMANDERY.

The Grand Officers having been duly received and escorted to their respective stations, the Grand Commander states the purpose of the occasion, and calls upon the Grand Prelate to lead in devotional exercises. A Scripture lesson should be read, and prayer offered. If a choir is present, an appropriate selection of music may be given.

The Grand Marshal receives from the Recorder a list of the officers elect, and retires with them to Guard Room; forms them in line according to official rank—swords at a carry—Commander on right.

An altar should be placed before the Grand Commander, with Holy Bible opened, and Square, Compasses, Cross Swords, Jewels, Charter, Constitution of Grand Encampment, Statutes and Regulations of Grand Commandery, and By-Laws of Commandery, resting thereon. Banners of Commandery displayed from Grand Commander's station.

Grand Marshal announces officers elect. Grand Commander orders the Sir Knights to form into two divisions—swords at a carry—at open order, full width of Asylum, and inward faced.

GRAND MARCH.

Grand Marshal escorts officers elect into Asylum, halts and faces them before Grand Commander, right resting on South. Commander is placed in center, and three paces in front of officers elect.

Grand Marshal orders, "Attention, Sir Knights! Present swords!" Officers salute, and the Sir Knights stand at "present."

The Sir Knights then uncover, and kneel whilst the Grand Prelate offers prayer, to be followed by the Lord's prayer, in which all the Sir Knights join. The Sir Knights arise.

The Commander elect is then presented to the Grand Commander by the Grand Marshal, who says:

Right Eminent Grand Commander: I have the honor to present to you, Sir Knight ———, who has been elected to the office of Commander of this (new) Commandery. I find him to be well skilled in our sublime mysteries, and observant of the noble precepts of our forefathers, and have, therefore, no doubt that he will discharge the important duties of his office with fidelity.

The Grand Commander then asks: "Sir Knight, are you ready to subscribe to the vow of office?" On his answering in the affirmative, the Grand Commander will draw his sword, and hold it horizontally, the edge toward the Commander elect,, who will place his left hand on the blade, his right hand on his left breast, and repeat as follows:

I, ———, do promise and vow that I will support and maintain the Constitution and Code of Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America; and the Statutes and Regulations of the Grand Commandery under whose immediate authority I act; and the By-Laws of this Commandery; and that I will, to the best of my knowledge and ability, faithfully discharge the various duties incumbent upon the office to which I have been elected.

The Grand Commander will then address the Commander-elect as follows:

Eminent Sir: Having been elected to the important and honorable station of Commander of this Commandery, it is with unfeigned pleasure that I enter upon the discharge of the duty of installing you into office. As the head of a Christian institution you are charged with important responsibilities and duties, and it is confidently anticipated that your fidelity to these trusts will reflect honor upon yourself, and credit upon your Commandery. It now becomes my duty to propose certain questions to you, to which unequivocal answers are required:

I. Do you solemnly promise, upon the honor of a Knight Templar, that you will redouble your endeavors to correct the vices, purify the morals, and promote the happiness of those of your brethren who have attained to this magnanimous Order?

II. That you will never suffer your Commandery to be opened, unless there be present nine regular Knights of the Order?

III. That you will not confer the Orders upon any one who has not shown a charitable and humane disposition, or who has not made a considerable proficiency in the preceding degrees?

IV. That you will promote the general good of the Order, and on all proper occasions be ready to give and receive instructions, particularly from the General and State Grand Officers?

V. That, to the utmost of your power, you will preserve the solemnities of our ceremonies, and behave, in open Commandery, with the most profound respect and reverence, as an example to your brethren?

VI. That you will not acknowledge or hold communication with any Commandery that does not work under a Constitutional Warrant or Dispensation?

VII. That you will not admit any visitor into your Commandery who has not been knighted in a Commandery legally constituted, without his being first formally healed?

VIII. That you will pay due respect and obedience to the instructions of the General and State Grand Officers, particularly relating to the several lectures and charges, and will resign the chair to them, severally, when they may visit your Commandery?

IX. That you will support and maintain the Constitution and Code of Statutes of the Grand Encampment, and the Statutes and Regulations of the Grand Commandery under whose authority you act?

X. That you will bind your successor in office to the observance of the same rules to which you have now assented?

Do you submit to all these things? And do you promise to observe and practice them faithfully?

If the Commander responds affirmatively, the Grand Commander then addresses him as follows:

Eminent Sir: Having been chosen by the members of your Commandery to fill the most exalted station in their power to bestow, I congratulate you upon being the recipient of such honorable preferment, and now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a cross surrounded by rays of light. It is to remind you that humility, love, and pure benevolence are refulgent rays that emanate from the pure and undefiled religion of the blessed Emmanuel, and which should ever characterize the members of this Christian Order. It is to remind you of Him who died that He might give life to the world, and who is indeed the Lord and Savior of all those who accept His guidance and obey His precepts.

I present you the Charter of your Commandery. You will receive it as a sacred deposit, and never permit it to be used for any other purposes than those expressed in it, and safely transmit it to your successor in office.

I also commit to your hands the Holy Bible, the great light in every degree of Masonry, together with the Cross Swords. The doctrines contained in this sacred volume create in us a belief in the existence of the Eternal Jehovah, the one only living and true God, the Creator and Judge of all things in heaven and earth; they also confirm in us a belief in the dispensation of His providence. This belief strengthens our Faith, and enables us to ascend the first step of the grand Masonic ladder. This Faith naturally produces in us a Hope of becoming partakers in the promises expressed in this inestimable gift of God to man, which Hope enables us to ascend the second step; but the third and last, being Charity, comprehends the former, and will continue to exert its influence when Faith shall be lost in sight, and Hope in complete fruition. The Cross Swords, resting upon the Holy Bible, are to remind us that we should be "strong in the Lord and in the power of His might;" that we should put on the whole armor of God, to be able to wrestle successfully against principalities and powers, and spiritual wickedness in high places.

I also present you with the Constitution of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America, the Statutes and Regulations of the Grand Commandery of this State, and the By-Laws of your Commandery. You will frequently consult them yourself, and cause them to be read for the information of your Commandery, that all, being informed of their duty, may have no reasonable excuse to offer for the neglect of it.

And now, Eminent Sir, permit me to induct you into the chair of your Commandery, and, in behalf of the Sir Knights here assembled, to offer you my most sincere congratulations on your accession to the honorable station you now fill. It will henceforth be your special duty to preserve, inviolate, the Constitutions and Laws of the Order; to dispense justice, reward merit, encourage truth, and diffuse the sublime principles of universal benevolence. You will distribute alms to poor and weary pilgrims traveling from afar, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and bind up the wounds of the afflicted. You will inculcate the duties of Charity and hospitality, and govern your Commandery with justice and moderation. And finally, my brother, may the bright example of the illustrious heroes of former ages, whose matchless valor has shed undying luster over the name of Knight Templar, encourage and animate you to the faithful performance of every duty.

Sir Knights: Behold your Eminent Commander (the Sir Knights rise and present swords). Recollect, Sir Knights, that the prosperity of your Commandery will as much depend on your support, assistance and obedience, as on the assiduity, fidelity and wisdom of your Commander. Be ye, therefore, diligent and faithful in the performance of your respective duties.

If the new Commander desires to offer any remarks, this is the appropriate time.

Grand Marshal orders:

Attention, Sir Knights! Carry swords! Officers elect, return swords!

Then may follow a chant or appropriate hymn by the choir.

The Grand Marshal then presents the other officers in the following words:

Right Eminent Grand Commander: I have the further honor of presenting to you, for installation, these valiant Sir Knights who have been chosen to fill the various offices in this Commandery for the ensuing year, and now declare themselves ready to enter upon the duties of their respective stations.

The Grand Commander addresses the officers elect as follows:

Sir Knights: Before proceeding to invest you with the honor and responsibility of your respective stations, it becomes my duty to administer to you the vow of office. Do you severally consent to take upon yourselves that vow?

They bow in token of assent. Grand Marshal orders:

Officers elect, about face! Deposit chapeaux! About face! Call off from the right by twos! Numbers one—Handle swords! Draw swords! Carry swords! Incline blade of sword to left! Numbers two—Grasp blade with left hand! Numbers one—Grip sword with left hand! Numbers one and two—Place right hand upon left breast!

Grand Marshal then says :

Right Eminent Grand Commander: The officers chosen are in proper position to take upon themselves the vow of office.

Grand Marshal, turning to the Commandery, orders :

Attention, Sir Knights! Present swords!

Officers elect then repeat after the Grand Commander the

VOW OF OFFICE.

I, _____, do promise and vow, that I will maintain and support the Constitution and Code of Statutes of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America, the Statutes and Regulations of the Grand Commandery of _____, and the By-Laws of this Commandery, and that I will, to the best of my ability, faithfully discharge the duties of the office to which I have been elected.

Grand Marshal orders :

Numbers two—Relinquish sword blade! Numbers one—Grip sword with right hand! Carry swords! Return swords! About face! Resume chapeaux! About face! Attention, Sir Knights! Carry swords! Return swords! To your posts—March!

Grand Marshal conducts the Generalissimo first, then the remaining officers according to rank, to the Altar before the Grand Commander, introducing each by his title, and designating the office to which he has been chosen. The Grand Commander will receive each of these officers with fitting words, calling attention to their official duties and charging them to faithfulness in discharging the same. He will also invest these officers with their respective jewels, and direct them to their respective stations.

[The following are suggested as appropriate charges:]

CHARGE TO THE GENERALISSIMO.

Sir: You have been elected Generalissimo of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Square, surmounted by a Paschal Lamb. When beholding the Lamb, let it stimulate you to have, at all times, a watchful eye over your own conduct, and an earnest solicitude for the prosperity of the kingdom of the blessed Emmanuel, the spotless Lamb of God, who was slain from the foundation of the world.

The Square is to remind you that love and friendship should forever govern the members of Freemasonry and of the Orders of Knighthood. Your station is on the right of your Commander; you are to assist him in his various duties; and, in his absence, preside. I charge you, therefore, to be faithful to the Sir Knights with whom you are associated; put them often in remembrance of those things which tend to their everlasting peace. Finally, "preach the word, be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine;" ever remembering the promise, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

CHARGE TO THE CAPTAIN-GENERAL.

Sir: You are elected Captain-General of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Level, surmounted by a Cock. As the undaunted courage and valor of the Cock stimulates him to conquer his competitor, or yield himself a victim to the contest, so should you be stimulated to the discharge of every duty. You should have on "the breast-plate of righteousness," so that with patience and meekness you may ever travel on the level of humility, and be so supplied with divine grace as to prevent you from selling your God or denying your Master. Your station is on the left of your Commander. Your duty, among other things, is to see that due preparation is made for the various meetings of the Commandery; that the Chambers and Asylum are in suitable array for the introduction of candidates, and the dispatch of business. You are also to receive and communicate to the lines all orders issued by the Commander. You are to assist in Council, and, in the absence of your Commander and Generalissimo, you are to preside over the Commandery. And now, I exhort you, that with fidelity you perform every duty; and, "whatsoever you do, do heartily as to the Lord, ~~now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Hollow Square and Sword of Justice. It is to remind you that, as the children of Israel marched in a hollow square in their journey through the wilderness, in order to guard and protect the Ark of the Covenant, so should you be vigilant in guarding every avenue from innovation and error. Let the Sword of Justice, therefore, be ever drawn to guard the Constitution of the Order. Your station is at the southwest angle of the Triangle, and upon the right of the first division. You will attend pilgrim warriors, comfort and support pilgrim penitents, and, after due trial, introduce them into the Asylum. Let it be your constant care that~~ and not unto men: continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;" ever bearing in mind the promise, "Be not weary in well-doing, for in due time we shall reap if we faint not."

CHARGE TO THE SENIOR WARDEN.

Sir: You are elected Senior Warden of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Hollow Square and Sword of Justice. It is to remind you that, as the children of Israel marched in a hollow square in their journey through the wilderness, in order to guard and protect the Ark of the Covenant, so should you be vigilant in guarding every avenue from innovation and error. Let the Sword of Justice, therefore, be ever drawn to guard the Constitution of the Order. Your station is at the southwest angle of the Triangle, and upon the right of the first division. You will attend pilgrim warriors, comfort and support pilgrim penitents, and, after due trial, introduce them into the Asylum. Let it be your constant care that the warrior be not deterred from duty, nor the penitent molested on his journey. Finally, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

CHARGE TO THE JUNIOR WARDEN.

Sir: You are elected Junior Warden of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is an Eagle and Flaming Sword. It is to remind you to perform your various duties with justice and valor, having an eagle eye on the prosperity of the Order. Your station is at the northwest angle of the Triangle, and on the left of the third division. Your duty is to attend weary pilgrims traveling from afar, conduct them on their journey, plead their cause, and, in due time, recommend them to the Commander. You will be careful that, in addition to the pilgrim's garb, sandals, staff, and scrip, their whole preparation and deportment shall be such as to cause them to be recognized as children of humility. Teach them that Magna est Veritas et Praevalebit," is the motto of our Order; and although they will often find the heights of fortune inaccessible, and the thorny path of life crooked, adverse, and forlorn, yet by faith and humility—courage and constancy—patience and perseverance—they may gain admission into the Asylum above, there to enjoy the rewards that await the valiant soldiers of the Lord Jesus Christ. Finally, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, that you may be a shining light in the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

CHARGE TO THE PRELATE.

Sir: You are elected Prelate of this Commandery. I have the pleasure of investing you with this Triple Triangle, which is the jewel of your office, and a beautiful emblem of the Deity. Your station is on the right of the Generalissimo. Your duty is to officiate at the Altar, and to offer up prayers to Jehovah. Your jewel is to remind you of the importance of the trust reposed in you; and may "He who is able, abundantly furnish you for every good work, preserve you from falling into error, improve, strengthen, establish and perfect you," and finally greet you with "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

CHARGE TO THE TREASURER.

Sir: You are elected Treasurer of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office. Your station is on the right of the Generalissimo, in front. The qualities which should recommend a Treasurer are accuracy and fidelity—accuracy, in keeping a fair and minute account of all receipts and disbursements; fidelity, in carefully preserving all the property and funds of the Commandery that may be placed in his hands, and rendering a just account of the same whenever he is called upon for that purpose. I presume that your respect and attachment to the Commandery, and your earnest solicitude for a good name, which is better than precious ointment, will prompt you to the faithful discharge of the duties of your office.

CHARGE TO THE RECORDER.

Sir: You are elected Recorder of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office. Your station is on the left of the Captain-General, in front. The qualities which should recommend a Recorder are: promptitude in issuing the notifications and orders of his superior officers; punctuality in attending the meetings of the Commandery; correctness in recording their proceedings; judgment in discriminating between what is proper and what is improper to be committed to writing; integrity in accounting for all moneys that may pass through his hands, and fidelity in paying the same over to the Treasurer. The possession of these good qualities, I presume, has designated you for this important office, and I cannot entertain a doubt that you will discharge its duties beneficially to the Commandery and honorably to yourself. And when you shall have completed the record of your transactions here below, and finished the term of your probation, may you be admitted into the celestial Asylum of saints and angels, and find your name recorded in the Lamb's Book of Life.

CHARGE TO THE STANDARD BEARER.

Sir: You are elected (appointed) Standard Bearer of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Plumb, surmounted by a Banner. Your station is in the West, and in the center of the second division. Your duty is to display, support, and protect the Banner of our Order which I now, with pleasure, confide to your valor. You will remember that it is our rallying point in time of danger; and when unfurled in a just and virtuous cause, you will never relinquish it to an enemy but with your life. Let, therefore, your conduct be such as all the virtuous will delight to imitate; let the refulgent rays, which ever emanate from pure benevolence and humility, diffuse their luster on all around, that it may encourage and animate all true and courteous Knights, and, at the same time, confound and dismay all their enemies.

CHARGE TO THE SWORD BEARER.

Sir: You are elected (appointed) Sword Bearer of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Triangle and Cross Swords. Your station is on the right of the Standard Bearer, and on the right of the second division. Your duty is to assist in protecting the Banner of our Order, with a heart devoted to the principles of Faith, Hope and Charity. Holding the mystic sword that is endowed with justice and fortitude, and tempered with mercy, you may cast your eyes upon the Banner, and remember that "In Hoc Signo Vincas" is an expressive motto of our Order, and consoling to the heart of every believer.

CHARGE TO THE WARDER.

Sir: You are elected (appointed) Warder of this Commandery. I now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Square Plate, with a Trumpet and Cross Swords engraved thereon. Your station is on the left of the Standard Bearer, and upon the left of the second division, when separately formed. Your duty is to sound the Assembly, announce the approach and departure of the Eminent Commander, to post the sentinels, and see that the Asylum is duly guarded. You will, also, report all petitions from visitors and strangers. I charge you to be punctual in your attendance, and indefatigable in the discharge of your important duties, for though yours is among the last offices in the Commandery, it is by no means the least in importance.

CHARGE TO THE THREE GUARDS.

Sir Knights: You are appointed Guards. I now invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Square Plate with a Battle Ax engraved thereon. Your posts are those of honor as well as danger. You will, therefore, be vigilant, challenge with spirit, examine with caution, admonish with candor, relieve cheerfully, protect with fidelity, and fight valiantly.

CHARGE TO THE SENTINEL.

Sir: You are appointed Sentinel of this Commandery, and I invest you with the jewel of your office, which is a Square Plate with a Battle Ax engraved thereon, and this implement of your office. As the sword is placed in the hands of the Sentinel to enable him effectually to guard against the approach of cowans and eavesdroppers, and suffer none to pass or repass but such as are duly qualified, so it should morally serve as a constant admonition to set a guard at the entrance of our thoughts, to place a watch at the door of our lips, to post a sentinel at the avenue of our actions, thereby excluding every unqualified and unworthy thought, word and deed, and preserving consciences void of offense toward God and toward man.

As the first application from visitors for admission into the Commandery is generally made to the Sentinel at the door, your station will often present you to the observation of strangers; it is, therefore, essentially necessary that he who sustains the office with which you are intrusted, should be a man of good morals, steady habits, strict discipline, temperate, affable, and discreet. I trust that a just regard for the honor and reputation of the institution will ever induce you to perform with fidelity the trust reposed in you, and when the door of this earthly tabernacle shall be closed, may you find an abundant entrance, through the gates, into the temple and city of our God.

The presiding officer then delivers the following

CHARGE TO THE COMMANDERY.

Sir Knights: To manage and conduct the concerns of a Commandery of Knights Templar with that promptitude, integrity, and skill which the institution demands, will require the exercise of all the talents and perseverance of its officers and members. Are any of you solicitous that your equals and inferiors should conduct themselves toward you with deference and respect? Be sure to let no opportunity pass without furnishing them an example in your own conduct. The officers will recollect that those moral and religious duties and precepts which they, from time to time, so forcibly impress upon the minds of others, should by no means be neglected by themselves, and the most effectual way to insure success is to let precept and example go hand in hand.

I would, therefore, exhort one and all to look well to the East, to the West, to the North, and to the South, and see that the entering avenues are strictly guarded, and that you suffer no one to pass the threshold of your Asylum but the worthy children of humility, and, at the same time, that you suffer no one to walk among you disorderly without admonition or reproof. While such is the conduct of the officers and members, you may rest assured that this valiant, magnanimous Order will forever flourish like the green bay tree. And now, Sir Knights, I would address you in the language of David to his beloved city: "Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces! For my brethren and companions' sake, I will now say, Peace be within thee!"

The Grand Marshal will then make the OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION.

Hear ye! hear ye! hear ye! Valiant Knights of the Temple! In the name of the Grand Commandery of the State of _____ I hereby proclaim that the officers of _____ Commandery, No. —, Knights Templar, have been duly installed into their respective stations for the ensuing Templar year, and the Commandery is now constitutionally organized for the dispatch of business. This proclamation is made to the North (one blast on trumpet), to the South (one blast), to the East (one blast), to the West (grand flourish on trumpet). All true and courteous Knights will take due notice thereof, and govern themselves accordingly.

The choir may then chant "Te Deum Laudamus," or render some appropriate musical selection.

The Grand Commandery may then retire with a proper escort, and the Commandery will proceed with the regular order of business.

[When the officers of a Commandery are installed by a present or past Commander, the titles used should be Eminent Commander and Sir Knight Marshal.]

INSTALLATION SERVICE FOR GRAND COMMANDERIES.

At the time selected for the ceremony of installation, the acting Grand Commander shall take his place as presiding officer, and select some competent Sir Knight to act as Grand Marshal, under whose direction the officers elect will retire to an adjoining room. The jewels of office should be placed on the Altar in front of the installing officer. The Grand Commander will then direct the Grand Marshal to introduce the Grand Officers elect, and display them by single line, facing the East, in the order of their official rank, the Grand Commander on the right. The Grand Marshal will then say:

Right Eminent Grand Commander, I present before you these Eminent Sir Knights, who, having been duly elected officers of this Grand Commandery for the ensuing year, are now ready to enter upon the duties of their several stations.

Then, all standing, the Grand Commander shall say:

Sir Knights: Before investing you with the jewels of your respective official positions, it becomes my duty to receive from you the vow of office. Are you willing to take such vow?

They bow in token of assent. The Grand Marshal will then cause each Sir Knight in the line of officers elect occupying the odd numbers from the right of the line to draw his sword, dropping it to the left to a horizontal position. The Sir Knight on his left will lay his left hand upon the sword, then each will place his right hand upon his left breast, and repeat after the Grand Commander the following

VOW OF OFFICE.

I, _____, do promise and vow that I will support and maintain the Constitution and Code of Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America, the Statutes and Regulations of the Grand Commandery of the State of _____, and that I will, to the best of my ability, faithfully discharge the duties of the office to which I have been elected.

The Grand Marshal will then conduct the Grand Commander elect to the front of the Altar, and, addressing the presiding officer, will say:

Right Eminent Grand Commander: I present to you Eminent Sir Knight _____, who has been elected to the office of Grand Commander of Knights Templar of this jurisdiction, and who now declares himself ready for installation.

The presiding officer will then say:

Attention, Sir Knights! Uncover! Let us unite with our Grand Prelate in an invocation to the Throne of Grace.

The Grand Prelate will then offer an appropriate prayer.

The Sir Knights will then be covered, and the presiding officer will deliver to the Grand Commander the following CHARGE.

Right Eminent Sir: Having been called by the members of this Grand Body to fill the highest office in their gift, I congratulate you upon having received such high honor at their hands, and I now invest you with the jewel of your office.

Having placed the jewel on the left breast of the Grand Commander, he continues:

The high honors of your office are accompanied by weighty responsibilities. While your authority will at all times be respected, and your orders cheerfully obeyed, it is expected that you will have a watchful care over the interests of the Order in your jurisdiction, and enforce a prompt obedience to its Statutes and Regulations; that you will yourself exemplify, in your daily walk and conversation, the excellent tenets of our profession; that your ears will never be closed to the cry of the widow and the orphan; and that you will not turn aside from injured innocence and the wayfaring brother in distress. Maintain with unfailing care the Statutes and Regulations of this Grand Body, and by your own respect for law cause others to find a strong incentive to obedience of all lawful requirements.

The Grand Commandery will now be seated, and should the new Grand Commander desire to offer any remarks, this is the appropriate time.

The Grand Marshal will then present the remaining Grand Officers for installation, which work may be done by the Grand Commander, or the officer previously officiating. In either case, the officers to be installed shall be charged to the faithful performance of the duties of their respective positions, and shall be invested with the jewels thereto attached.

Due proclamation shall then be made by the Grand Marshal as follows:

Hear ye! hear ye! hear ye! Valiant Knights of the Temple! The Grand Officers of the Grand Commandery of ———, for the year ensuing, have been duly installed into their respective stations. This proclamation is made to the North (one blast on trumpet), to the South (one blast), to the East (one blast), and to the West (grand flourish on trumpet). All true and courteous Knights will take due notice thereof, and govern themselves accordingly.

If desired, appropriate music may be used during the ceremony.

INSTALLATION SERVICE FOR GRAND ENCAMPMENT

At the time designated for the ceremony of installation, the officers elect shall be placed in due position before the retiring Grand Master, or some officer designated to take his place in the performing of the service of installation, who shall administer to them the following

VOW OF OFFICE.

I, _____, do promise and vow that I will support and maintain the Constitution and Code of Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America, and will use my best endeavors to cause a proper observance of the same, according to the authority which is in me vested; and that I will, to the best of my ability, faithfully discharge the duties belonging to the office to which I have been elected.

Prayer may then be offered.

The presiding officer may then address the Grand Master and those associated with him in office, calling attention to the work and responsibility which devolve upon them, and giving to them a special charge that they shall exercise a careful supervision of the affairs and interests of the Order, and be diligent in their several exalted stations to exemplify the graces of Christian Knighthood.

He shall then cause proclamation to be made that the officers have been duly installed.
